

Upon renewal, commercial licensees may submit this form in place of a certificate of compliance if the commercial license has previously submitted a certificate of compliance showing full compliance in accordance with 63 O.S. § 426.1(E). An additional certificate of compliance is not required for license renewal unless a change of use or occupancy occurs, or another change that would require additional inspection, licensure, or permitting by the state or municipality.

ATTESTATION I understand that by signing this form:

- I attest that no change of use, occupancy, or other change that would require additional inspection, licensure, or permitting by the state or municipality has occurred at the licensed location.
